Manager Summary

> “Grace is exceptionally reliable operationally. The next stage of growth is moving from executing process to helping design it.” — Aisha Bello, Hr Manager

Key Strengths

- Owns onboarding logistics for all new hires with a near-perfect on-time completion rate for day-one readiness.
- Proactively rewrote the new-hire welcome email sequence, which received strong feedback in new-hire pulse surveys.

- Dependable and highly organized; the team’s go-to person for keeping the HR portal data clean and current.

Areas for Growth

- Grace’s role is currently very execution-focused; there’s an opportunity to involve her earlier in process design, not just process running.
- Could build more confidence fielding policy questions directly rather than routing everything to her manager.
- Limited exposure so far to employee relations work, which is a natural next growth area.

Goals for Next Review Period

1. Co-own the redesign of the 30-60-90 day onboarding check-in process, not just execute it.
2. Build a personal FAQ reference for the most common policy questions to answer more independently.
3. Shadow one employee relations case (with appropriate confidentiality boundaries) as an exposure opportunity.

Compensation & Advancement Notes

Grace is on track for a standard cost-of-living/merit adjustment consistent with a Meets Expectations rating, subject to calibration and budget approval.
